The law requires taxpayers to maintain adequate records to substantiate deductions for travel, entertainment, gifts and vehicles. Examples of "adequate records" are mileage logs, receipts, paid bills, etc.

Additionally, all deductions for charitable contributions must be substantiated by a receipt or letter (if cash) and by a bank record (if a check). Any deduction for donations of $250 or more requires a written acknowledgment from the charitable organization which states the date, amount of contribution and a statement as to whether you received any goods or services in return for the contribution.

In preparing your tax returns, we have made the assumption that you have all the documents to substantiate these deductions. If you do not, you should obtain these documents before filing your tax returns or contact us so that we can make the necessary adjustments to your returns.

These returns were prepared from unaudited financial data and accordingly, we do not express an opinion on them.

Please be sure to call us if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
